

Mshimkenh Ense Kwe – Angela Boyer is of mixed ancestry, Ojibway from the Mississauga First Nation #8 & Cuenca Ecuador South America. Member of the Wolf Clan. Angela is an advocate of Indigenous arts & culture. Angela has been a volunteer since she was 12 years old for the Indigenous community in Toronto. In her younger years she has managed the Native Canadian Centres Calendar Project with schools across Ontario. Angela currently works as the Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women Team Lead for Toronto Council Fire Cultural Centre. In her free time is a dedicated Community Builder & Intuitive Public Speaker. Angela is also a poet whose poetry honours the lives of Missing and Murdered Indigenous women GT2S across Turtle Island. Angela considers herself an artist of life and believes anything you touch with love and passion can be turned into something magical.

A large, bold, red capital letter 'R' is positioned in the bottom right corner of the page. The letter is thick and has a slightly rounded, modern font style.