

This Is Brampton: Live Online CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

With our venues closed due to Covid-19, The Rose is looking to present artists from – or with connections to – Brampton in a new series, This Is Brampton: Live Online. As with our curator series in The Rose’s Studio II*, these livestream performances give local artists a platform to present their work, receive compensation from The Rose for their art, and connect with a wider audience through our online community, while entertaining and engaging with our patrons during this difficult time.

Throughout our closure, The Rose will be presenting two live concerts a week on Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7:30 PM (EST), showcasing an artist, duo, or small group performing via Facebook Live or Instagram Live.

HOW IT WORKS

- Artists will stream their performance from their own Facebook profile or page, which The Rose will share to our page. Or, artists will perform on Instagram Live from their own profile, which The Rose will share and promote.
- Artists must demonstrate responsible social distancing.
- Performances are expected to last 30-60 minutes and can be any genre or medium.
- The Rose Marketing team will create digital assets and will work with artists to promote performances in the series

HOW TO SUBMIT

Please send a short note of interest to our Programming Coordinator, Danny Harvey at danny.harvey@brampton.ca that includes:

- Short bio
- Connection to Brampton/The Rose
- What you’d like to perform for This Is Brampton: Live Online (performance medium, genre, length of time)
- Link to your Facebook and/or Instagram page or profile.
- 1-minute performance sample at your livestream set-up.

IF ACCEPTED

Participating artists are to provide the following marketing assets:

- Headshot or performance image (web quality, at least 72 dpi)
- Artist/band logo, if applicable
- A list of social handles

Thank you to all artists who submit. We are proud of what you create in our community!
